State law, state and local police, and prosecutors in criminal cases are very strict in Utah. Felony convictions come with extreme punishments, and even misdemeanor charges of some types require jail time. Exorbitant fines are also common. Just having a criminal record alone can have a serious impact on your life now and through your entire future. So, if you are facing criminal charges in the Logan, Utah, area, hire the best criminal defense attorney the area offers to help you avoid conviction and minimize your risk of receiving harsh punishments.

Types of Cases the Wasatch Law Firm Handles

Our criminal defense lawyers are familiar with state and federal criminal law, and with the prosecutors, and the systems and processes in the area's state and federal courts. We can negotiate to have sentences minimized and have charges dropped completely in some cases.

We Fully Protect All of Your Rights.

You should not attempt to defend yourself in a Utah criminal trial. That mistake is likely to cost you in many very serious ways for the rest of your lifetime. It is much more likely that you will lose your case if you try to manage it yourself. If you lose your case, you are also very likely to receive much worse punishments than if you have a skilled criminal defense lawyer who is familiar with the Utah courts and how to get charges and sentences reduced.

An experienced lawyer makes sure that all of your rights are protected. Your attorney also guides you through the process, gathers evidence, builds the best case for your legal defense, and fights for you in court. Your defense lawyer guides the case efficiently every step of the way to avoid potentially serious consequences of bad legal case management.
