Attorney Bio

Jeanne T. Campbell, Attorney at Law has a mission to provide affordable, qualified legal representation and protect the integrity of the criminal justice system. Meet with her today!

I started my career over 18 years ago working as a prosecutor for both the Utah Attorney General's Office and the Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office. I gained valuable experience in criminal defense to help people successfully navigate through our justice system. I have extensive trial experience handling cases in various district courts throughout the state of Utah. I provide free consultations and have payment plans available. If you or someone you love is facing criminal charges, you need an advocate who will fight aggressively for your legal rights. Don't hesitate, call today because I can help.

Remember Your Rights:

You Have the Right to Remain Silent

The police are trained to get you to incriminate yourself. DON'T BE INTIMIDATED! Fight back. Get quality legal advice from us as soon as possible.

You Have the Right to Examine the Evidence

This right covers ALL evidence against you, including eye witnesses, scientific analysis, and any surveillance of your activities.

You Have the Right to an Aggressive Defense

Don't settle for less than the most diligent and hardworking attorney you can retain. We stake our reputation on fighting for our clients' rights.
