

Motorcycle Accident Injury Lawyer in Utah

W wasatchdefenselawyers.com/practice/motorcycle-accident-injury-lawyer-in-utah

Many motorcycle accidents that occur on Utah roadways are caused by inattentive drivers. Statistically, according to the Utah Department of Public Safety, 37% of all motorcycle accidents result from another motorist's failure to yield to the right of way and 13% from an improper turn with 8% caused by following too closely. Motorcycle accident victims are more likely to suffer serious injuries or even death as a result of a devastating motorcycle accident. In fact, 29% of all fatal motorcycle accidents result from another driver hitting a motorcyclist who was turning left.

Motorcycle accident victims often face devastating and life-changing circumstances, including overwhelming expenses for emergency medical care, rehabilitation and ongoing care, lost income and other associated costs. Following a devastating motorcycle accident, you need an experienced motorcycle accident injury lawyer in Utah to negotiate with insurance companies, communicate with law enforcement and focus on settlement negotiations while you focus on your recovery.

You need a Utah personal injury attorney with the experience and the resources to answer your questions and help you and your family receive the maximum compensation you deserve for your motorcycle accident, so you can move forward with recovery and begin rebuilding your life. Contact Wasatch Defense Attorneys for your free case review at 801-845-3509.

What is My Motorcycle Accident Case Worth?

To determine the value of your motorcycle accident case, economic and noneconomic damages need to be calculated. Economic damages include medical expenses, lost income, and property damage. Noneconomic damages will include compensation for the impact your accident has had on your quality of life including compensation for pain and suffering. It is important to contact an experienced, qualified personal injury attorney to help you determine the maximum compensation you deserve.

For surviving family member who has lost a loved one from a tragic motorcycle collision, compensation for wrongful death in the state of Utah may include recovery for the following:

- Final Medical Expenses
- Loss of Future Income
- Loss of Care
- Funeral and Burial Expenses
- Additional Economic Losses
- Noneconomic Damages, including Loss of Companionship
- Punitive Damages

What is the Statute of Limitations for a Personal Injury Lawsuit in the State of Utah?

While the statute of limitations varies from state to state, it is important to pursue any claim for personal injury within the specified timeframe set forth. The statute of limitations for victims of a motorcycle accident in The Beehive State is four years from the date of the accident. The statute of limitations for filing a wrongful death claim is within two years from the date of your loved one's death. However, claims against a government entity is within one year from the date of the victim's death.

Get a Free Motorcycle Accident Case Evaluation Today

Regardless of the severity of your injuries, it is vital to contact an experienced personal injury attorney to safeguard your legal rights after your motorcycle accident. Wasatch Defense Attorneys understand that you and your family deserve fair compensation to pay accumulating expenses, replace missed income and seek compensation for noneconomic damages that you're entitled to. Give us a call today at 801-845-3509 today, we offer payment plans and are proud to extend discounts to all members of the US Armed Forces.