What is Sextortion?

It's the use of sexual exploitation to coerce someone to give photos, videos, and recordings that are sexual nature. In most cases, the offenders use the opportunity to ask for sexual favors and money. They use the guilt, power and ravaging information to force their offender to take action in their favor.

Is Sextortion a Crime?

Sextortion is a new form of sexual assault whereby the offenders do not require the presence of their victims to commit the offense. Under the Sex and Kidnap Offender Registry, aggravated sexual extortion is a registerable offense.

Sextortion

A study on sexual extortion by Senior Fellow Benjamin Franklin Wittes reveals that 78% of the victims are mostly minors; the offenders are all male and usually have more than one victim. The adult victims are all women while the child victims are boys and girls. Teens are particularly profoundly easy to target due to their sexting tendencies. Further, Franklin estimates that there could be an estimated 6,000 sextortion victims.

Sextortion cases are on the increase, but one that affected a massive number of victims is that of Lucas Michael Chansler. He used to pose as a 15-year-old boy and then befriended young girls aged 13-18 on social media sites like Myspace and AIM between 2007 and 2010. He victimized over 350 from Canada, US, and the UK. Whenever he had an opportunity to video-chat with his victims, he would coerce them into sending explicit photos. Unknown to the victims, Lucas was recording everything. In 2015 after the investigation by the FBI, Chansler was found guilty and hit with a 106 years sentence for sex crimes.

Sextortion Laws in Utah

Cyber exploitation laws in the state of Utah laws define that a person 18 years or older is guilty of committing sexual extortion if the individual has an intent to coerce a victim to produce, distribute explicit images, videos, or other recordings when naked or when engaging sexual conduct. Such offenders will threaten to distribute images, videos or the recordings of the victims that involve sexual conduct. In the State of Utah, sexual extortion is a third-degree felony, aggravated sexual extortion involving an adult is a second-degree felony while aggravated sexual extortion involving a minor or a vulnerable adult is a second-degree felony.

Penalties for Sextortion in Utah

Unfortunately, just like cyber-attacks like revenge porn, there are no outright laws on either sextortion or a uniform punishment for the offenders. However, a sexual exploitation offender will be punished for various crimes such as extortion, intimidation, bribery, child pornography, and cyberstalking. The circumstance of your case will determine how your charges will be. You could even be charged with a number of crimes. And it gets even more serious if it involved a minor.
