Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a workplace harassment subtype under Utah policy R477-15-1 (a) and is defined as unwelcome, demeaning, derisive, pervasive, ridiculing or coercive behavior resulting in an offensive, hostile or intimidating work place even if the violation occurred outside of the work location and scheduled work time. Further conduct of retaliation detailed in Utah policy R477-15-2 includes tangible employment action against a harassed employee.

Custodial Sexual Misconduct

Custodial sexual misconduct is defined in Utah code § 76-5-412 as an offender, who is a law enforcement officer or correctional officer who causes any sexual touching between an offender and victim under correctional supervision or who is a prisoner. The degree of the crime will depend on the specifics including statutory charges if the victim is under 18 years of age.

Sexual Discrimination

Sexual Discrimination is unequal treatment based on gender, pregnancy or sexual orientation in employment. The Utah Antidiscrimination Act prohibits discrimination against a qualified individual because of gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy related conditions or childbirth.
